

Dublin Tourist Office

Tourist Offices in Dublin provide useful information for visitors coming to Dublin. The information provided can vary from the availability of hotel accommodation to the various tourist attractions and travels available also currency details and information about passports and Visas and their respective embassies and the regions and cities of Dublin. Tourism is one of the biggest industries and Dublin is officially a very popular tourist destination. There are a number of tourist offices available both at Ireland and its capital Dublin. Tourist offices in Dublin Dublin Tourist information can be available at the Dublin Tourism Centre. To get more information there are tourist guide books available in a variety of languages along with a city map of Dublin, there are also video's and free pod cast and audio guides available to make the information available to you while you are on the move. Tourist Offices located in Dublin can be listed below:

1) Suffolk St, Dublin 2- Open on Monday from 9am to 5pm and between Wednesdays to Saturday from 9.30am to 5.30pm. 2) Dun Laoghaire Ferry Terminal, Dun Laoghaire, Co. Dublin – Open from Monday to Saturday from 10am to 6pm. 3) Dublin Airport, Co. Dublin 4) The Square Towncentre, Tallaght, Dublin 24 – Open 8am to 1pm daily 5) Failte Ireland, Baggot Street Bridge, Dublin 2 – Open 9.30am to 5.15pm from Monday to Friday. 6) Dalkey Castle and Heritage Centre located in a medieval castle in Dalkey. Lusk Heritage Centre located in Lusk village, Co. Dublin. Suffolk St, Dublin The Dublin Tourism Centre on Suffolk Street situated in the former church of St. Andrew opened and started in 1996 is located in the heart of the city and has information on everything you need to know about Dublin and Ireland. While waiting for your enquiry number to be called you can relax in the O'squo; Briens Irish Sandwich Bar or take a stroll around the book and gift shop. It is the most popular and liked Tourist Offices in Dublin which is quite crowded and busy during the day. Advantages of a Tourist Office The alternatives to get information while at Dublin other than going to tourists centres would be to visit Dublin Tourist.com from an internet cafe while at Dublin. Here you can get a huge selection of Dublin Hotels, guesthouses, places to visit, tours, maps of Dublin and more. There are regional guides who give you information on the various towns and villages in Dublin. Dublin offers a variety of attractions like Churches, Historic buildings, Museums and galleries, parks and gardens and many more. Dublin Tourism.com also gives a brief about the upcoming events depending upon the time of the year you are visiting enabling you to adjust your tour to participate or witness any of the events. There is a Dublin travel and transport guide giving information on ways to get to Dublin like flight and ferry services, also rail services and car rentals available. However, a tourist office provides you with official information from a chamber of commerce or the government, visitor's bureau and such similar organizations. The information provided is thus accurate, reliable, free and unbiased.